Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

“On September 2, 2003, the Board on my motion reestablished a $5,000 reward for any information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patton, who were brutally stabbed and killed during a robbery in their home located in the 2000 block of S. La Brea Ave., in the City of Los Angeles on Saturday, May 27, 2000.

“I have since been informed by the local law enforcement agency handling the case that there is only one potential claimant for the reward and there are no other anticipated claims that will be filed in the case.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried, the Board instructed the Reward Committee to meet and consider all reward claims filed to date for the reward reestablished on September 2, 2003 relating to the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patton, and report back to the Board with a recommendation on said claims within 30 days.
